Past Events

LB Heritage Holds Annual Meeting at Joe Jost's

Sunday afternoon, I stopped by the annual meeting of Long Beach Heritage. They selected Joe Jost's as the venue to announce their new Legacy Business Program. Joe Jost's owner, Ken Buck, spoke about his grandfather's founding of this 4th district legacy business in 1924. We'll be interested learn more about the Legacy Business Program and what other CD4 businesses might qualify for the designation. Thanks to LB Heritage for hosting the meeting in CD4 and to all those who attended.

Civic Center Grand Opening

Monday night was the grand opening celebration of the new Civic Center. The complex includes the new City Hall, the Bob Foster Civic Chambers and the Port of Long Beach administration building. In late September, the new Billie Jean King Main Library will open at the northeast end of the complex. You can read the LBPost's coverage of Monday's celebration at this link.

Pow! Wow! 2019 in District Four

Pow! Wow! returned to Long Beach for a fourth summer this year. Pow! Wow! Long Beach brings art and culture to public spaces by beautifying the city while cultivating community pride. This year, the Fourth District received two new murals along the Anaheim Corridor. We hope you get to a chance to check them out!

CD4 Community Meeting on Disaster Preparedness

Wednesday evening, we hosted our monthly community meeting at the Los Altos Library with LBFD Public Information Officer, Jake Heflin. He discussed various aspects of disaster preparedness. If you are interested in learning more about preparedness, please visit the Long Beach Department of Disaster Preparedness website, the Community Emergency Response Team website or attend Ready Long Beach on Saturday, September 28th at CSULB. Thank you to everyone who attended!

Tenant Relocation Assistance Ordinance

Yesterday, August 1st, the new Tenant Relocation Assistance Ordinance went into effect. City staff has prepared information and implementation documents including public outreach materials and required forms. The forms will be used to collect program data such as landlord payments to tenants and the vacation of an entire building. They've also created an 11-page fact sheet available at this link. For additional information, please check the website or contact our council office.

Upcoming Events

Bike Lanes Proposed for the Ximeno Curve

Last week, we told you about the origins of the "Ximeno curve". It's the section of Ximeno between 15th St. and PCH that was once straight, but it was rerouted to build the Circle Drive-In. There are now plans to introduce bike lanes on the curve as a connector to the 15th Street Bike Boulevard. Unlike the Broadway Corridor, there will not be a "road diet" or diagonal parking. Also unlike Broadway, the Ximeno curve is not flat or straight. It is curved with a steep incline or decline depending on your direction of travel. This presents traffic safety challenges that will require a great deal of planning. That's where you come in. Please let us know your thoughts via email on the proposed bicycle lanes. Below is the initial proposal that places the bike lanes next to the curb with parking outside of the bike lanes. We'll keep you updated in future newsletters as the design nears completion.

And Finally

Earthquake Preparedness

Whenever we have a discussion on earthquake preparedness, as we did with LBFD's Jake Heflin at our community meeting, the topic of Community Hospital comes up. The CHLB campus lies on an earthquake fault line, but the structures sustained no damage in the 1933 earthquake. The reason is likely due to two factors: construction quality and soil conditions. There were multiple 4th district buildings that sustained severe damage in 1933 in areas far away from the hospital including complete building losses on Anaheim Street at Newport, Redondo and Obispo. The photo below was taken on Anaheim Street just east of Cherry Ave. While Community Hospital will undergo extensive seismic retrofitting, it's still nice to know it survived the "the big one".
